

How many different words can you make from the letters in this sentence? Learning from home is fun	Think of someone that helps you in some way and write a short letter to them showing your appreciation.	Build a lego model, tower of cards. Draw it from different angles.	You could use letters, numbers, pictures, to create a secret code. See if someone else can crack it.	Look out the window each day and create a journal of the different things you see in nature. Eg birds, flowers, changes in weather.
Take some photos of your family, your pet, some nature. Write about them.	Build a reading fort or tent. Grab your book and read.	Use an old sock to create a puppet. Write a script and put on a puppet show.	Make a list of all of the electrical items you have at home. Draw a map of your house to locate them	Design and make a board game and play it with your family.
Do something kind for someone else. Pay them a compliment, make them something.	Find a bag (or pillow case) and collect items that could be used to retell a story.	Write a list of things that make you happy, things you are grateful for, or things you are good at.	Design and make an obstacle course at home. Time yourself, how fast can you complete it? Order your times and find the average.	Can you create something new? Design a new gadget and write a description.
Make up a dance or routine and share with your family.	Write a play. Can you act it out?	Read out loud to someone.	Write a song or rap about a favourite subject.	Find a photo or picture and sketch it. How accurate were you?
Collect and recycle materials from home. Can you create something out of them?	Draw a map of your local area. Put in the key landmarks	Write a letter or postcard to someone. Think about what makes your town or country amazing	Look out of your window, what do you see? Draw it, write a description.	What would you most like to learn about? Can you find out about it from reading books in your house or asking questions?
Use a deck of cards. Turn two over at a time. Add them, multiply, subtract.	Create a comic strip of your favourite show or create your own adventure.	Look through your school diary and complete some pages together.	Read a story together. Who were the main characters? Problem, solution?	Create your own exercise course at home.
Write a poem. Share with your family.	Create your own Narrative. *A message in a bottle. *I'm stuck at home *Through the doorway.	Create your own persuasive. *Children need to play outdoors *All families should own a pet *All children should wear uniform	Practise your times tables. Create a song or rap to help you remember them.	Think of our school values. *Describe each value and what each one means. *How do you display these? *Which value will you work on?
Create your own and complete some mental maths questions and each day. *12 x 7 *49 + 63 *83 - 15	Look at our spelling codes document in the diary. Write some words for each code. Can you recall the codes?	Create an oral presentation on a topic. Present it to the family.	Create a new game that can be played outdoors. Teach your family how to play.	Get a board game out and play with your family. Use the dice to have some fun with maths. Add them, multiply. How many dice can you use?